

CONSERVATION DISCUSSION

STUDENT A's QUESTIONS (Do not show these to student B)

- 1) What is conservation?
- 2) Would you like to work as a conservationist?
- 3) When and why do you think conservation became a high profile issue?
- 4) Do you think conservationists are winning or losing their battles?
- 5) Is enough attention given to conservation in your country's schools and media?
- 6) Which countries have the best and worst records on conservation?
- 7) Do you think your grandchildren will be happy with our attempts at conservation?
- 8) What do you think the world would be like today without the efforts of conservationists?
- 9) Which countries in the world are most in need of conservation projects?
- 10) Which conservation charity or organization would you support?

Hundreds more free handouts at www.eslDiscussions.com

CONSERVATION DISCUSSION

STUDENT B's QUESTIONS (Do not show these to student A)

- 1) Why is conservation important?
- 2) What are the most important areas regarding conservation in your country?
- 3) Is globalization making conservation efforts more difficult?
- 4) Do you agree with the illegal actions some conservationists use?
- 5) How can we reverse the effects of deforestation and desertification?
- 6) What do you think of the fact that much of Earth's biodiversity has already been lost?
- 7) What do you know about sustainable development and renewable resources?
- 8) Is it our duty to keep the Earth as it was created?
- 9) What does the current condition of Earth say about the human race?
- 10) Do you think our children will look after the Earth better than we have?

Hundreds more free handouts at www.eslDiscussions.com