

ADULTERY DISCUSSION

STUDENT A's QUESTIONS (Do not show these to student B)

- 1) What is adultery?
- 2) How bad is it?
- 3) Is it worse for the adulterer to be the man or the woman?
- 4) Do the couple have to be married for adultery to take place?
- 5) Do you think adultery should be a criminal offence?
- 6) What punishment should the adulterer and his/her lover receive?
- 7) Could you trust your partner again if they had cheated on you?
- 8) How many times would you forgive a cheating partner before filing for a divorce?
- 9) Do you think you should be able to sue a cheating partner on the grounds of breach of marriage contract?
- 10) What would you do if you discovered your partner had been unfaithful just once – five years ago?

Hundreds more free handouts at www.eslDiscussions.com

ADULTERY DISCUSSION

STUDENT B's QUESTIONS (Do not show these to student A)

- 1) Do you agree with the expression "once an adulterer, always an adulterer"?
- 2) Why do people commit adultery?
- 3) Are there any telltale signs your partner might veer off the path?
- 4) Is adultery a natural part of human relations our jealousies cannot cope with?
- 5) Is dating another person adultery or do you have to have sex?
- 6) Are extra-marital affairs common in your society?
- 7) The Bible says even thinking of having sex with another person is adulterous. What do you think? Is lust really a sin?
- 8) Who should get the kids in adultery cases?
- 9) Is adultery reasonable grounds for divorce?
- 10) Do you have any stories about husbands and wives playing around?

Hundreds more free handouts at www.eslDiscussions.com