

INFORMATION DISCUSSION

STUDENT A's QUESTIONS (Do not show these to student B)

- 1) What springs to mind when you hear the word 'information'?
- 2) Are you happy with the amount of information in your head?
- 3) How much useless information do you think you've learned?
- 4) Do you have more information than your grandparents?
- 5) Is it important to know a lot of information in today's world?
- 6) What do you think 'information economics' is?
- 7) What topics would you like to know more information about?
- 8) What is the information superhighway and why is it important?
- 9) Are you happy to be living in the 'Information Age'?
- 10) How do you gather information?

Hundreds more free handouts at www.eslDiscussions.com

INFORMATION DISCUSSION

STUDENT B's QUESTIONS (Do not show these to student A)

- 1) What's the difference between information and knowledge?
- 2) What information technology do you think is most important?
- 3) What kind of information is dangerous in the wrong hands?
- 4) Is there freedom of information in your country?
- 5) Do you often go to tourist information offices?
- 6) What important information are you carrying on you now?
- 7) What has the Internet done for information?
- 8) What is information overload?
- 9) What personal information about you should be confidential information?
- 10) What's the latest information?

Hundreds more free handouts at www.eslDiscussions.com